CHAPTER 3 – COMPLIANCE OFFICER – APPOINTMENT & ROLE

3.1 Compliance Officer

The Company Secretary of the Company shall be the Compliance Officer for the purpose of the Code and will report to the Chairman of the Audit Committee of the Company. The Audit Committee of the Company shall review compliance with the provisions of PIT Regulations at least once in a financial year and shall verify that the systems for internal control are adequate and are operating effectively.

3.1 In the absence of the Company Secretary, any other person as may be designated by the Chairman of the Audit Committee shall be the Compliance Officer for the purpose of the Code.

3.2 The Compliance Officer shall inter alia:

- 3.2.1 provide periodic reports to the Chairman of the Audit Committee and the Board of the Company, which shall not be less than once a year, including all the details of the Trading in Securities of the Company by Designated Persons as disclosed.
- 3.2.2 assist the Managing Director or the Board, as the case may be in setting forth policies, procedures, monitoring adherence to the rules for the preservation of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information;
- 3.2.3 review and approve all pre-clearance applications filed by Designated Persons for trading in Securities, along with all accompanying documents attached thereto, including trading plans in accordance with Clause 9 of this Code;
- 3.2.4 maintain and monitor the Digital Database containing the details of Designated Persons and Insiders with whom any Unpublished Price Sensitive Information has been shared or who have access to any Unpublished Price Sensitive Information of the Company along with the Permanent Account Number (PAN) or any other identifier authorized by law where PAN is not available, whether in the ordinary course of business, or for Legitimate Purpose or in relation to substantial transactions involving takeovers, mergers or acquisitions or any other purpose in accordance with this Code. The Digital Database shall be updated by the Compliance Officer, on an annual basis or as and when information changes and shall be maintained with adequate internal controls and checks such as time stamping and audit trails to ensure non-tampering of the database;
- 3.2.5 give notice to Insiders with whom Unpublished Price Sensitive Information has been shared for Legitimate Purpose as set out in Clause 4.1. of Chapter 3 (Restrictions on Communication and Trading by Designated Persons and Insiders) of this Code. This Code shall be annexed to such notice and would thereafter regulate and monitor such Insiders in the same manner as if such Insiders were Designated Persons; and
- 3.2.6 address any clarifications/ difficulties regarding the PIT Regulations and/or the Code and the implementation of the Code, under the overall supervision of the Board of the Company.

- 3.3 The Compliance Officer shall maintain all records under the Code and the PIT Regulations for a minimum period of 5 (five) years. The Compliance Officer shall be responsible to formulate written policies and procedures for inquiry in case of leak of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information or suspected leak of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information, which shall be approved by the Board of Directors of the Company and accordingly initiate appropriate inquiries on becoming aware of leak of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information or suspected leak of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information and inform SEBI promptly of such leaks, inquiries and results of such inquiries under intimation to the Chairman of Audit Committee;
- 3.4 The Compliance Officer may at any time, call for any demat account number and monitor dealing in Securities of the Company by accessing data base available with the Company.
- 3.5 The Compliance Officer may engage external consultants, advisors or experts for putting in place an IT-enabled software or system to automate the compliances under this Code including seeking disclosures and undertakings from Designated Persons and Insiders, sending intimations to such persons regarding closure of Trading Window, etc.

CHAPTER 4 – RESTRICTIONS ON COMMUNICATION AND TRADING BY DESIGNATED PERSONS AND INSIDERS

4. Preservation of “Unpublished Price Sensitive Information”

- 4.1 Subject to Clause 4.2 below and other the provisions of this Code, all Designated Persons and Insiders shall maintain confidentiality of all Unpublished Price Sensitive Information and must not pass on such information directly or indirectly by way of making a recommendation for the purchase or sale of securities, or otherwise to any person including other Insiders except where such communication is in furtherance of Legitimate Purpose, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations and otherwise in accordance with this Code.
- 4.2 Notwithstanding anything contained in this Code, Insiders may communicate, provide, allow access to or procure, Unpublished Price Sensitive Information, in connection with a transaction which would-
- 4.2.1 entail an obligation to make an open offer under SEBI (Substantial Acquisition of Shares and Takeovers) Regulations, 2011 (“Takeover Regulations”) where the Board is of the informed opinion that sharing of such information is in the best interests of the Company;
- 4.2.2 not attract the obligation to make an open offer under the Takeover Regulations but where the Board is of informed opinion that sharing of such information is in the best interests of the Company and the information that constitutes Unpublished Price Sensitive Information is disseminated to be made Generally Available at least 2 (two) Trading Days prior to the proposed transaction being effected, in such form as the Board may determine to be adequate and fair to cover all relevant and material facts; and

- 4.2.3 For purposes of this clause, the Board shall require the parties to such transaction to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such parties and such parties shall keep information so received confidential, except for the purpose of this Clause 4, and shall not otherwise Trade in Securities of the Company when in possession of such Unpublished Price Sensitive Information.
- 4.3 Any person in receipt of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information pursuant to a Legitimate Purpose shall be considered as an "Insider" and such person shall maintain confidentiality of such Unpublished Price Sensitive Information.
- 4.4 Unpublished Price Sensitive Information must be handled by Insiders on a "need to know" basis, and no Unpublished Price Sensitive Information shall be communicated to any person except in furtherance of the Insider's Legitimate Purposes, performance of duties or discharge of his legal obligations and whose possession of such information will not give rise to a conflict of interest or appearance of misuse of information.
- 4.5 Access to Unpublished Price Sensitive Information should be limited to the extent possible.
- 4.6 Files containing Unpublished Price Sensitive Information shall be kept secure. Computer files must have adequate security of login and password, etc.
- 4.7 To prevent the misuse of confidential information and Unpublished Price Sensitive Information, the Company has adopted a "Chinese Wall" policy which separates those areas of the Company which routinely have access to confidential information or Unpublished Price Sensitive Information or both, considered "inside areas" from those areas which provide support services to these functions/areas and do not have access to such information, considered as "public areas", as discussed in Clause 7 below.
- 5. Trading when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information
- 5.1 No Designated Person shall trade in Securities that are listed or proposed to be listed on a stock exchange when in possession of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information of the Company.
- 5.2 When a person who has traded in securities has been in possession of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information, his trades would be presumed to have been motivated by the knowledge and awareness of such information in his possession.
- 5.3 A Designated Person may trade in the Securities of the Company under the following circumstances: –

5.3.1 the trade is an off-market inter-se transfer between Designated Persons who were in possession of the same Unpublished Price Sensitive Information without being in V breach of PIT Regulations for communication of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision.

Provided that such Unpublished Price Sensitive Information was not obtained under Clause 4.2 of the Code. Such off-market trades shall be reported by the Designated Persons to the Company within 2 (two) working days. The Company shall notify the particulars of such trades to the stock exchange within 2 (two) trading days from receipt of the disclosure or from becoming aware of such information.

5.3.2 the trade is carried out through the block deal window mechanism between persons who were in possession of the Unpublished Price Sensitive Information without being in breach of Clause 4 of this Code and both parties have made a conscious and informed trade decision. Provided that such Unpublished Price Sensitive Information was not obtained by either person under Clause 4.2 of the Code.

5.3.3 the trade in question was carried out pursuant to a statutory or regulatory obligation to carry out a bona fide Trade.

5.3.4 the trade in question was undertaken pursuant to the exercise of stock options in respect of which the exercise price was pre-determined in compliance with applicable regulations.

5.4 In the case of non-individual Designated Persons, such Designated Persons may trade in the following circumstances:

5.4.1 the individuals who were in possession of such Unpublished Price Sensitive Information were different from the individuals taking trading decisions and such decision-making individuals were not in possession of such Unpublished Price Sensitive Information when they took the decision to trade; and

5.4.2 appropriate and adequate arrangements were in place to ensure that the PIT Regulations (and the provisions of this Code) are not violated and no Unpublished Price Sensitive Information was communicated by the individuals possessing the information to the individuals taking trading decisions and there is no evidence of such arrangements having been breached;

5.4.3 the trades were pursuant to an Approved Trading plan in accordance with Clause 9.

5.5 In the case of Insiders being Connected Persons, the onus of establishing that they were not in possession of the relevant Unpublished Price Sensitive Information, shall be on such Connected Persons and in other cases, the onus would be on SEBI.

6. Prevention of misuse of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information

6.1 Unless otherwise expressly allowed in this Code, Designated Persons shall not use Unpublished Price Sensitive Information for trading in Securities, whether on their own account or their Immediate Relatives' account or on account of any other person for whom Designated Persons take trading decisions and further shall ensure that their Immediate Relatives or any other person for whom Designated Persons take trading decisions shall also not engage in trading in Securities on their own account, if such Designated Person is in possession of any such Unpublished Price Sensitive Information.

7. Chinese wall policy

7.1 The 'Chinese Wall' policy means and aims at physically segregating the functional areas within the Company that are processing and access confidential and Unpublished Price Sensitive Information routinely from the other areas. The basic objective is to limit the access to confidential and Unpublished Price Sensitive Information on a need-to-know basis and thereby monitor and prevent the misuse of the same, during the mutual interactions between such areas. The areas processing or accessing confidential and Unpublished Price Sensitive Information shall be considered as "inside areas" and all the other areas that do not have access to such information shall be regarded as "public areas".

7.2 Except as expressly permitted under this Code, the Insiders in the inside area shall not communicate any confidential or Unpublished Price Sensitive Information to anyone in public area.

7.3 The Designated Persons in inside area shall be physically segregated from persons in the public area.

7.4 There shall be proper demarcation of relevant areas as inside areas.

7.5 In exceptional circumstances, Designated Persons and other persons from the public areas may be brought "over the wall" and given access to confidential and Unpublished Price Sensitive Information strictly on the basis of "need to know" criteria, under intimation to the Compliance Officer.

7.6 Except as otherwise specifically determined by the Compliance Officer (and communicated to employees of the Company and Designated Persons), the Company's following functional areas shall be considered as inside areas in respect of Securities of the Company:

- a. Finance department including Corporate Planning and Strategy Group;
- b. Legal and Secretarial Group;
- c. Office of CEO including Corporate Communications department;
- d. Risk Management and Process Standardisation including internal audit department;
- e. Enterprise Technology Group (ETG) and
- f. Human Resource Management Group (HRMG).

7.7 The Designated Persons within the inside area shall take particular care as to distribution and storage of material, non-public information/ documents containing confidential and Unpublished Price Sensitive Information. Appropriate security measures as to passwords, document reproduction and distribution, and secure storage should be exercised.

CHAPTER 5 – REQUIREMENTS FOR TRADING IN SECURITIES OF THE COMPANY

8. Trading in Securities of the Company

- 8.1. If a Designated Person has an Approved Trading Plan (in relation to Securities of the Company), then such Approved Trading Plan shall be irrevocable and the Designated Person shall mandatorily have to implement the said plan, without being entitled to either deviate from it or to execute any trade in the Securities of the Company outside the scope of the Approved Trading Plan.
- 8.2. All Designated Persons shall be entitled to trade in the Securities of the Company only when the Trading Window is open, and:
- 8.2.1 after obtaining pre-clearance from the Compliance Officer (in respect of such proposed trade), (“Company Pre-Clearance”), if the value of the Securities of the Company proposed to be traded, whether in one transaction or a series of transactions over any calendar quarter, aggregates to a traded value in excess of [INR 10,00,000 (Indian Rupees ten lakhs)]. or such other value as may be specified by SEBI:
- 8.2.2 without obtaining any pre-clearance from the Compliance Officer if the proposed trade (in Securities of the Company) is at or below the threshold mentioned in Clause 8.2.1. above.

9. Trading Plan

- 9.1 Every Designated Person shall be entitled to formulate a trading plan (of Securities of the Company) and present it to the Compliance Officer for pre-clearance in form as prescribed in Annexure I and public disclosure, pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan.
- 9.2 Such trading plan shall:
- 9.2.1 not entail commencement of Trading in the Securities of the Company earlier than one hundred and twenty calendar days from public disclosure of such plan;
- 9.2.2 not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;

9.2.3 set out either the value of trades to be effected or the number of relevant Securities of the Company to be traded along with the nature of the trade and the period at, or dates on which such trades shall be effected; and

“set out following parameters for each trade to be executed:

- (i) either the value of trade to be effected or the number of securities to be traded;
- (ii) (ii) nature of the trade;
- (iii) either specific date or time period not exceeding five consecutive trading days;
- (iv) price limit, that is an upper price limit for a buy trade and a lower price limit for a sell trade, subject to the range as specified below:
  - a. for a buy trade: the upper price limit shall be between the closing price on the day before submission of the trading plan and upto twenty per cent higher than such closing price;
  - b. for a sell trade: the lower price limit shall be between the closing price on the day before submission of the trading plan and upto twenty per cent lower than such closing price

9.2.4 not entail Trading in Securities of the Company for market abuse.

9.3 The Compliance Officer shall review and approve the trading plan to assess whether the plan would have any potential for violation of the PIT Regulations (and provisions of this Code) and shall be entitled to seek such express undertakings as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan.

Provided that pre-clearance of trades shall not be required for a trade executed as per an Approved Trading Plan.

Provided further that Trading Window norms and restrictions on contra trade shall not be applicable for trades carried out in accordance with an Approved Trading Plan.

9.4 As mentioned in Clause 8.1 above, the trading plan once approved (“Approved Trading Plan”) shall be irrevocable and the Designated Person shall mandatorily have to implement the said plan, without being entitled to either deviate from it or to execute any trade in the Securities of the Company outside the scope of the Approved Trading Plan.

Provided that the implementation of the Approved Trading Plan shall not be commenced if any Unpublished Price Sensitive Information of the Company in possession of the Designated Person at the time of formulation of the said plan has not become Generally Available at the time of the “execution of the trading plan should not be commenced by the Compliance Officer until such Unpublished Price Sensitive Information becomes Generally Available Information so as to avoid a violation of sub- Regulation (1) of Regulation 4 of PIT Regulations, and Clause 5.1 above.

Provided further that if the insider has set a price limit for a trade under sub-clause (iv) of clause (v) of sub-regulation 2, the insider shall execute the trade only if the execution price of the security is within such limit. If price of the security is outside the price limit set by the insider, the trade shall not be executed.

Allowing of certain exceptions for non-implementation of the trading plan by insiders •

- Insiders are now provided the flexibility to deviate from the trading plan in the case of permanent incapacity, bankruptcy or operation of law.
- In other cases where the insider is unable to implement the trading plan—because either the price of the security is outside the set limit or the scrip has inadequate liquidity the Amendment Regulations specify the adoption of the following procedures:
  - The insider should intimate the compliance officer within two days of the end of tenure of the trading plan with reasons and supporting evidence
  - - The compliance officer will place the information along with the recommendations before the audit committee in its immediate next meeting.
  - - The audit committee will decide whether such (full or partial) non-implementation was bona fide or not.
  - - The compliance officer will notify the audit committee's decision to the stock exchanges on the same day. - If the audit committee does not accept the insider's submission, the compliance officer will take action as per the code of conduct.

The compliance officer shall approve or reject the trading plan within two trading days of receipt of the trading plan and notify the approved plan to the stock exchanges on which the securities are listed, on the day of approval."The second proviso is intended to address the scenario where the insider has set a price limit for a trade and due to adverse fluctuation in market prices, the price of the security is outside the price limit set by the insider, the trade shall not be executed. However, if the insider wishes to trade irrespective of the fluctuation in market price, he may not set any price limit at the time of formulation of the trading plan.

10. Company Pre-clearance & Trading Window

- 10.1 Application for obtaining the Company Pre-clearance shall be made in form as prescribed in Annexure II. No such pre-clearance shall be applied for by Designated Persons to the Compliance Officer if such Designated Person is in possession of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information of the Company (even if the Trading Window is not closed), unless such information has become Generally Available. Prior to granting the Company Pre-clearance, the Compliance Officer shall be entitled to seek declarations to the effect that the applicant for pre-clearance is not in possession of any Unpublished Price Sensitive Information of the Company – and the Compliance Officer shall also have regard to whether any such declaration is reasonably capable of being rendered inaccurate.

- 10.2 *Exercise of options granted and vested under Employee Stock Option Scheme (ESOS) of the Company shall be permitted during the period when the Trading Window is closed, in respect of which the exercise price was pre-determined in compliance with applicable regulations.
- 10.3 Unless otherwise specified by the Compliance Officer, the Trading Window shall be, inter alia, closed 21 (twenty one) days prior to declaration of dividends (interim and final) and from the end of every quarter till 48 (forty eight) hours after the declaration of financial results (quarterly, half-yearly and annual) or at any other time as designated by the Compliance Officer if any Unpublished Price Sensitive Information is under active consideration of the Company.
- 10.4 The Trading Window shall be opened 48 (forty eight) hours after the relevant Unpublished Price Sensitive Information is made Generally Available or at such later time as may be determined by the Compliance Officer.

CHAPTER 6 – OTHER COMPLIANCES

11. Execution / non-execution of pre-cleared orders and related reportings

- 11.1 Upon obtaining an Approved Trading Plan, if trade is not executed in accordance with the Approved Trading Plan, including at the times indicated in the Approved Trading Plan, then the relevant Designated Person shall report the same (with necessary reasons), in the form as prescribed as Annexure III.
- 11.2 Upon obtaining a Pre-Clearance:
- 11.2.1 The relevant trades shall be executed within 7 trading days after the Pre-Clearance is given.
- 11.2.2 In case of execution of trades pursuant to a Pre-Clearance, the Designated Person shall report the details of the trades so executed, within [2 (two) working days of executing the trade in the form as prescribed as Annexure IV.
- 11.2.3 In case trade is not executed within one week after the Pre-Clearance is given, then (a) the Designated Person shall report the same (with necessary reasons) in the form as prescribed as Annexure IV), within [2 (two) working days of expiry of the aforesaid one week period; and (b) the Designated Person must apply for fresh Pre-clearance for execution of such trades again.
- 11.2.4 If the Designated Person decides to not trade after securing the Pre-clearance, then the Designated Person shall report the same (with necessary reasons), in the form as prescribed as Annexure IV.

\ Clause 10.2 has been amended with the approval of the Board of the Directors with effect from May 11, 2024.*

- 11.3 The Designated Person shall submit supporting documentations, if any, requested by the Compliance Officer in connection with the submission of the reports mentioned in Clauses 11.1 and 11.2 above.
- 11.4 The Company shall notify the particulars of Trading of Securities of the Company to the stock exchange on which the Securities of the Company are listed within 2 (two) Trading Days of receipt of the disclosure or from becoming aware of such information in accordance with Clause 12.6.2 below.
- 11.5 Designated Persons shall not enter into an opposite transaction i.e. sell or buy any number of such Securities during the 6 (six) months following the previous Trade or transaction made by such Designated Person. Should a contra trade be executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to SEBI for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by SEBI under the SEBI Act, 1992. Provided that this shall not be applicable for trades pursuant to exercise of stock options.

  - 12.6.1 Every Promoter, member of the Promoter Group and Designated Person of the Company shall disclose to the Company the number of Securities of the Company acquired or disposed of within 2 (two) Trading Days of such transaction if the value of the Securities of the Company traded, whether in one transaction or a series of transactions over any calendar quarter, aggregates to a traded value in excess of INR 10,00,000 (Indian rupees ten lakhs) or such other value as may be specified by SEBI, as per Annexure VI;

12.6.2 The Company shall notify the particulars of Trading of Securities of the Company to the stock exchange on which the Securities of the Company are listed within 2(two) Trading Days of receipt of the disclosure or from becoming aware of such information, in the form prescribed by SEBI in writing. It is clarified for the avoidance of doubts that the disclosure of the incremental transactions after any disclosure under this sub- Clause, shall be made when the transactions effected after the prior disclosure cross the threshold specified in clause 12.6.1. above.

12.6.3 The above disclosures shall be made in such form and such manner as maybe specified by the Board from time to time.

12.7 Disclosures by Connected Persons

12.7.1 The Company may, in its discretion, require Connected Persons or class of Connected Persons to make disclosures of holdings and Trading in Securities of the Company, in such form as may be prescribed by the Company, and at such frequency as may be determined by the Company in order to monitor compliance with the PIT Regulations.

12.8 Designated Persons shall be required to disclose names, phone and cell numbers which are used and PANs or any other identifier authorized by law of the following persons to the Company on an annual basis and as and when the information changes:

12.8.1 Immediate Relatives;

12.8.2 Persons with whom such designated person(s) shares a Material Financial Relationship

12.8.3 Any other persons for whom such Designated Person(s) takes trading decisions.

12.9 In addition, the names of educational institutions from which Designated Persons have graduated and names of their past employers shall also be disclosed on a one time basis.

12.10 The Compliance Officer shall record all information provided by Designated Persons pursuant to Clause 12.8 and 12.9 above in the Digital Database.

The Board of Directors or any other person required to handle unpublished price sensitive information shall ensure that the structured digital database is preserved for a period of not less than 8 years after completion of relevant transactions and in the event of receipt of any information from the Board regarding any investigation or enforcement proceedings, the relevant information in the structured digital database shall be preserved till the completion of such proceedings.

CHAPTER 7 – MISCELLANEOUS

13. Penalty for contravention of code of conduct

- 13.1 Every Designated Person shall be individually responsible for complying with the provisions of the PIT Regulations and the Code to the extent applicable.
- 13.2 Any Director who violates the Code shall be subject to disciplinary action, as may be deemed fit by the Board of the Company.
- 13.3 Any Designated Person who violates the Code shall be subject to disciplinary action, which may include freeze on emoluments, ineligibility for future participation in the stock option plans or suspension/termination of service/contract, recovery, clawback or any other action as may be deemed fit by the Board.
- 13.4 Any action taken by the Company shall be without prejudice to any further action taken by SEBI for violation of PIT regulations.

14. Information to Stock Exchanges in case of violation of SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015

In case, it is found by the Company or Compliance Officer that there has been a violation of the PIT Regulations, the same shall be informed to the stock exchange(s) where the concerned securities are traded, in such form and manner as may be specified by the Board from time to time.

15. Protection against retaliation and victimization

15.1.1 Any Informant who is an employee of the Company including a Designated Person who files a Voluntary Information Disclosure Form with SEBI under the PIT Regulations will not bear risk of suffering any form of reprisal or retaliation which includes discharge, termination, demotion, suspension, threats, harassment, directly or indirectly or discrimination against the employee irrespective of whether the information is considered or rejected by SEBI or he or she is eligible for a reward under the regulations, by reason of-

- (i) filing a Voluntary Information Disclosure Form under the regulations;
- (ii) testifying in, participating in, or otherwise assisting and aiding SEBI in any investigation, inquiry, audit, examination or proceeding instituted or about to be instituted for an alleged violation of insider trading laws or in any manner aiding the enforcement action taken by SEBI; or
- (iii) breaching any confidentiality agreement or provisions of any terms and conditions of employment or engagement solely to prevent any employee from cooperating with SEBI in any manner.

For the purposes of this Clause, an employee means 'any individual who during employment may become privy to information relating to violation of insider trading laws and files a Voluntary Information Disclosure Form under these regulations and is a director, partner, regular or contractual employee, but does not include an advocate.

- 15.2 Any term or provision in any agreement (oral or written) or this Code of Conduct is void in so far as it purports to preclude any person from submitting to SEBI information relating to violation of the securities laws that has occurred, is occurring or has a reasonable belief that it would occur.
- 15.3 No employee is required to intimate the Company or seek prior permission or consent or guidance of the Company or any of its representatives for filing a Voluntary Information Disclosure Form or is required to intimate the Company or any of its representatives for filing a Voluntary Information Disclosure Form.

Dear Sir,

I, _____ of the Company residing at _____, on [my own behalf/ on behalf of <insert name of Immediate Relative>, my Immediate Relative], do hereby state as under, that:

- (a) I/we do not have any access nor have we received any “Unpublished Price Sensitive Information” of the company whose Securities are proposed to be traded (“Identified Company”), up to the time of signing of this undertaking (and such Unpublished Price Sensitive Information, “Relevant UPSI”)
- (b) In case I/we get access to or receive Relevant UPSI after the signing of this undertaking but before the execution of the transaction, I/we shall inform the Compliance Officer of the change in my/our position and will apply for pre-clearance of the transaction afresh. Further specifically undertake that I / we would completely refrain from trading in the said Securities of the Identified Company till such time the fresh [Company Pre-clearance / Other Pre-clearance] is obtained (and in accordance with the terms thereof).
- (c) I/we has / have not executed a contra trade in last 6 months and shall not within 6 months execute a contra trade in next months. Should a contra trade be executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to SEBI for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by SEBI under the SEBI Act, 1992. I / we have also not taken positions in derivative transactions in the Securities of the Company at any time.
- (d) I/we have not contravened the Company’s Code of Conduct for Prevention of Insider Trading, as notified by the Company from time to time (“Code”).
- (e) I am aware that, I shall be liable to face penal consequences set forth in the Code including disciplinary action under the Code, in case the above declarations are found to be misleading or incorrect at any time.
- (f) If approval is granted, I / we shall execute the trade within one week of the receipt of approval. In case of execution of trades pursuant to a _____ Pre-Clearance, I shall report the details of the trades so executed, within [2 days] of executing the trade in the form as prescribed. In case trade is not executed within one week after the Pre-Clearance is given, then (i) I shall report the same (with necessary reasons) in the prescribed form, within [2 days] of expiry of the aforesaid one week period; and (b) I shall apply for fresh Pre-clearance of the transaction again.
- (g) I/we agree to comply with the provisions of the Code and provide any information relating to the trade as may be required by the Compliance Officer and permit the Company to disclose such detail to SEBI, if so required by SEBI.
- (h) I/we have made a full and true disclosure in the matter.

Capitalised terms used and not defined herein shall have the same meaning as prescribed to it in the Code.
